[2026-06-12 16:40 BST]	Riley -> Celeste: Calendar still has MEE-26 on 17 Jun, 15:00 UTC. We need to move it.
[2026-06-12 16:42 BST]	Celeste -> Riley: How far? Remember the new display name starts 15 June, 00:00 UTC.
[2026-06-12 16:45 BST]	Mina -> Riley: Existing invites can keep the old title if the event itself doesn't change.
[2026-06-12 16:48 BST]	Riley -> Mina: Agenda won't be ready. Can we bump one day?
[2026-06-12 16:50 BST]	Celeste -> Riley: Yes, but do it in Calendar. A cheerful group text is not a cancellation.
[2026-06-12 16:53 BST]	Riley -> Celeste: Point taken. Cancel 17th, replace with 18th.
[2026-06-12 16:56 BST]	Mina -> Riley: New invite should say Meridian Record Exchange. Keep MEE-26 on it.
[2026-06-12 16:59 BST]	Riley -> Celeste: Same hour: 15:00 UTC / 16:00 BST. Correct?
[2026-06-12 17:02 BST]	Celeste -> Riley: Correct. Carry the attendee statuses over and link back to the cancellation.
[2026-06-12 17:05 BST]	Mina -> Riley: The cancelled one can still say Meridian Evidence Exchange. It was true when sent.

[2026-06-12 17:09 BST] Riley -> Mina: Someone pasted "just use the new title everywhere and delete old notices." Please tell me that's not the plan.

[2026-06-12 17:12 BST] Mina -> Riley: It's a quote from someone's drive-by advice, not my plan. Old notices stay.

[2026-06-12 17:15 BST] Celeste -> Riley: Thank you. The dated alias notice is enough to get from one name to the other.

[2026-06-12 17:18 BST] Riley -> Celeste: I'll say we're moving the meeting, not deciding project scope by calendar invite.

[2026-06-12 17:21 BST] Celeste -> Riley: Exactly. Schedule + display name. Nothing grander.

[2026-06-12 17:22 BST] Riley -> Celeste: Writing the invite body now.

[2026-06-12 17:25 BST] Mina -> Riley: I'll switch future templates after midnight UTC on the 15th.

[2026-06-12 17:26 BST] Riley -> Mina: Not before, please. ~~Thursday~~ Monday 00:00 UTC is the boundary.

[2026-06-12 17:27 BST] Mina -> Riley: Monday. Understood.

[2026-06-12 17:29 BST] Riley -> Mina: And leave the approved charter title alone, yes?

[2026-06-12 17:31 BST] Mina -> Riley: Yes. Hands off the charter.

[2026-06-12 17:33 BST] Celeste -> Riley: Also, a rename did not create a new legal entity or change customer terms. Before that rumor grows legs.

[2026-06-12 17:38 BST] Riley -> Celeste: Understood. Same MEE-26, less evidence-themed name.

[2026-06-12 17:44 BST] Mina -> Riley: Cancellation drafted. Original UTC time and attendee list are still visible.

[2026-06-12 17:45 BST] Riley -> Mina: Does it link to the replacement?

[2026-06-12 17:46 BST] Mina -> Riley: It will once the replacement exists. Chicken, egg, calendar.

[2026-06-12 17:49 BST]	Riley -> Mina: Send that first, please. I don't want two live meetings for five exciting minutes.
	[2026-06-12 17:53 BST] Mina -> Riley: Cancelled. Old event has the big red stripe now [thumbs up]
[2026-06-12 17:58 BST]	Riley -> Celeste: Replacement is live: 18 June, 15:00 UTC, new display name.
	[2026-06-12 18:01 BST] Celeste -> Riley: I see it. Keep both events and we're fine.
[2026-06-12 18:02 BST]	Riley -> Celeste: Both are in the export. Neither one edits the other.
	[2026-06-12 18:06 BST] Riley -> Mina and Celeste: Thanks. No scope/budget/approval changes hiding in the move.
[2026-06-12 18:10 BST]	Mina -> Riley: Both invites have their own attendees and UTC fields. Miraculously.
	[2026-06-12 18:14 BST] Riley -> Mina: I'll mention the sequence in Q3 planning so nobody resurrects the 17th.
[2026-06-12 18:18 BST]	Celeste -> Riley: Good. And use MEE-26 when you do; the titles won't match.
	[2026-06-12 18:19 BST] Riley -> Celeste: Number first, name second. Noted for every future slide.
[2026-06-12 18:26 BST]	Mina -> Riley and Celeste: One cancelled, one live. I'm logging off before we rename it again [laugh]
	[2026-06-12 18:28 BST] Riley -> Mina and Celeste: Sensible. Thanks both.
[2026-06-12 18:29 BST]	Celeste -> Mina: For the avoidance of doubt: that was a joke, not a filing.
	[2026-06-12 18:30 BST] Celeste -> Riley and Mina: Have a good evening. No more nouns today.
